

DATA PROCESSING NOTICE

On the processing of personal data at the fishinda.com website and in the Fishinda application

Effective: As of 25 May 2019 until revoked

We use your personal data to enable the use of the services provided by Fishinda Kft. (registered seat: H-8096 Sukoró, Páfrány köz 11. Hungary, company registration number: 07-09-027623) ("Fishinda") on the fishinda.com website and in the Fishinda application as well as to send you useful content, relevant information, product recommendations, recommended services and personalized offers with the aim of optimizing your experience related to the services. These great services are based on your earlier behavior, the services you have used and the information you have shared with us.

I. Introduction

Fishinda processes the personal data of the natural persons ('Users') registered in the Fishinda Application ('Application') and using the fishinda.com website ('Website' or 'Marketplace') with the aim of providing them the operation of these platforms ('Service'). Having acquainted themselves with this Data Processing Notice, Users, by registering on any of the Fishinda platforms and by using the Service, consent to their personal data being processed by Service Provider in accordance with the provisions of this Data Processing Notice.

I.1. Application

The Fishinda application is a community-building platform which provides registered Users with an information channel and information about fishing activities, catches, fishing waters, products and, using online community building as an instrument, it intends to eventually build real communities.

I.2. Marketplace (Website)

An online marketplace at the www.fishinda.com Internet site for those interested in fishing. The Fishinda Marketplace unites our partners selling their products on the Fishinda Website. Thanks to the products of the Marketplace sellers, Users browsing the Website can have a substantially larger product portfolio to choose from using their own account.

I.3. Users

User is a natural person or a legal person who, by providing their data during registration, becomes entitled to use the Services. Users accept and acknowledge that registration and the use of the Service do not guarantee that they will receive all the information that they find important as the content of the information is based on communication provided and disclosed by the Users and others. Fishinda shall not accept any responsibility for the truthfulness of the data provided or for the information communicated or disclosed by the Users or others. We maintain the right to remove user profiles from the Fishinda application or from the Marketplace which are not truthful.

Fishinda considers it to be its fundamental obligation to ensure that the privacy rights related to personal data are fully observed during its operations and therefore we will use any and all instruments and apply any and all methods available to us to process your personal data in full compliance with Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on general data protection ('GDPR Regulation') as well as with other applicable legislation. Having regard to the fact that one of the main intentions of the underlying legal regulation is to provide transparency, this document aims to provide information on the data protection and data processing principles and regulations applied in connection with the Fishinda Application and the www.fishinda.com website (Marketplace) . The basic principle for the processing of personal data during the operation of the Application and the Website is to protect the personal data of every user for the entire term while such data are handled and processed, in accordance with the applicable legislations.

We maintain the right to update and amend this Data Processing Notice from time to time in order to ensure that the provisions presented here reflect at all times the actual manner of how personal data is processed and to ensure that they comply at all times with the statutory requirements in effect. Should any of these regulations be amended based on the above, we will publish the amended version of the Data Processing Notice on our website.

- 2) e-mail address

- 3) data of purchases
- 4) behavior habits related to the use of the Application and the Website
- 5) information and behavior habits related to reading newsletters.

You may unsubscribe from newsletters and from any other marketing-related communication at any time, without any limitation and the need to provide a cause, free of charge, at the following address: info@fishinda.com.

Furthermore, if you receive a commercial message via e-mail, we will remind you in such e-mails that you may unsubscribe at any time, without limitations and the need to provide a cause, free of charge.

III.4. Data processing for the purposes of participating in competitions and of receiving marketing-related communication

During the registration and by using the Application and the Website, Users may provide their consent to participating in promotions, competitions, to process his/her data that he/she provided for the purpose of carrying out these, and to his/her name and country being disclosed if the User has won.

During the registration and by using the Application and the Website, Users may provide their consent to being approached by Fishinda Kft. with direct marketing proposals (including the sending of newsletters) at the contact details provided by User.

Providing such consent is not required.

III.5. Processing for other purposes

These include correspondence with the customer service of Fishinda Kft. (user complaints, grievances, requests, queries).

Fishinda Kft. maintains a customer service and the correspondence carried out with the customer service is recorded in order to enable Fishinda Kft. to credibly reconstruct the events in case of a consumer dispute.

IV. Data protection officer

Having respect to the fact that none of the compulsory cases set forth in Article 37 of the GDPR Regulation apply, no Data protection officer has been appointed.

V. Legal basis, purpose and means of processing

V.1. We will use your data primarily to provide the Services to you. This general aim incorporates the following scopes of usage, if applicable:

- creating and managing a user account on the Fishinda interface;
- processing orders, including receiving, screening, shipping and billing such orders;
- performing actions related to the cancellation of orders or any other issues in relation to goods purchased or Services ordered;
- handling returned products in compliance with relevant statutory provisions;
- reimbursing the value of products in compliance with the relevant statutory provisions;

- providing support services.

In the majority of the cases, processing your data for the above purposes is necessary for the conclusion and the performance of the contract between you and Fishinda. In addition to this, processing certain data in this respect is required by statutory provisions, including the laws on taxation and accounting.

V.2. We may process your data to enhance our services.

Our aim is to be able to provide the highest possible level of services and online customer experience at all times. Among other things, this requires us to collect and utilize certain information about your purchasing habits. For this reason, we carry out market research directly or with the involvement of external partners and we also ask you to fill out a questionnaire measuring your satisfaction after a specific order. We perform such activities on grounds of our legitimate commercial interests, however, we always maintain that such activities shall not violate your basic rights and freedoms.

V.3. Data processing may be carried out for marketing activities.

We would like to keep you continually informed of our current offers and latest news related to your fields of interest. In the interest of this,-at certain intervals we will send newsletters with general or thematic content by the electronic means available to us (in the form of e-mail / SMS / mobile notifications / banners, pop-up messages etc.), and we will also inform you of products similar to or supplementing the products you purchased or intended to purchase earlier. Furthermore, we would like to display other commercial communications as well as personalized offers on our website and via our mobile application. We may use certain data (e.g. products viewed / products added to favorites / purchased products) for user profiling so that we will be able to provide you with information that falls in your field of interest.

In most cases we carry out our marketing communication activities with your prior consent. You may change your mind and revoke your consent at any time by changing the account settings in the Application and/or on the Website or by contacting Fishinda using the contact details provided above.

We use some of our marketing activities to promote and enhance our commercial activities based on our legitimate commercial interests. In every case where we use information related to you with regard to our legitimate commercial interest, we use such information with the utmost care expected of us in this respect, fully guaranteeing that your fundamental rights and freedoms are not violated.

V.4. We may process your data with regard to our legitimate commercial interests.

Situations may arise in which we are required to forward certain information in order to exercise our own rights and business interests and to protect our commercial activities. Such situations, without being exhaustive, may include the following:

- Defensive and other precautionary measures against cyber attacks jeopardizing the security of the users of the Website and the Fishinda Application;
- measures to prevent and discover any attempts of fraud, including forwarding the relevant information to the competent authorities and public authority bodies;
- measures to manage any other risks.

Our authorization for the processing of the data as described above arises from our legitimate business interests to protect our own commercial activities, during which we continually guarantee that the measures we perform or propose take into consideration the principle of balance and proportion between our legitimate interests and the fundamental rights and freedoms of the Users.

Furthermore, in certain cases we perform data processing with a view to fulfilling our statutory obligations. This is necessary to guarantee the principles and the values required by applicable laws for the transaction in question.

Fishinda Kft. shall not use the personal data provided for purposes other than the ones determined herein. Personal data may only be disclosed to third parties or to the authorities - unless regulated otherwise by law with a binding effect - based on the prior, explicit consent of the User.

VI. The duration of the processing

As a rule, we will store your personal data as long as your Fishinda user account exists. Nevertheless, you may request certain data relating to you to be erased or your user account to be terminated at any time, however, with regard to certain data relating to you we will fulfil our statutory obligation to safeguard and store such data even after your user account is terminated.

If you do not have a Fishinda account and make a purchase on the Website, as a rule, we are required to store any information related to your order for a period of 3 [three] years from the performance of that order. Similarly to provisions above, in accordance with the statutory obligations related to safeguarding and storage, we may be required to ensure that certain data is stored for a period exceeding the term of three years.

VI.1. The processing of your personal data provided upon registration in the Application and on the Website starts with the registration and lasts until such data is erased upon request. In case of optionally provided data, processing lasts from the time when the data was provided until such data is erased upon request.

Users may delete their registration in the settings of the Application and the Website, or it may be deleted upon request of the User by Fishinda Kft. .

VI.2. The system stores the logged data in a manner associated with the person until the registration is deleted.

VI.3. In the event that the registration is deleted or the User does not log in the Application for 5 years (it becomes inactive), every data associable with the person (name, e-mail address, country, Google ID, Facebook ID, fishing permit number, user identification ID, photographs, events) will be deleted. The data related to catches and user behavior will be anonymously processed by Fishinda Kft. for statistical purposes and in order to enhance user experience not associated with any person.

VI.4. The above provisions do not affect the fulfillment of the retention obligations set forth by legislation (e.g. accounting laws) or any data processing based on consent that was provided when subscribing to newsletters on the Website or in any other way.

VI.5. In case of newsletters, the processing of personal data lasts until you unsubscribe from the newsletter.

VII. Transmitting data

In certain cases we will transmit your personal data to the parties in the following sectors and provide such parties access to some of your personal data:

VIII. The rights of the Users (data subjects) and the exercising of their rights

VIII.1. Users may at any time request to obtain information on the personal data relating to them and processed by Fishinda, which may be amended at any time by the User on the Website and in the settings of the Application, or at the request of the User by Fishinda.

VIII.2. Upon the request of the User, Fishinda shall provide information on his or her data being processed by it or by a processor engaged by it, on the source of such data, the purpose, the legal basis and the duration of the processing, furthermore, on the name, address of the processor and its activities related to the processing, the circumstances of any data breach, its effects and the measures taken to avert them, and furthermore - where the personal data of the User is transmitted - the legal basis and the recipient of the transmission. Fishinda shall provide such information within 30 days from the submission of such request.

Fishinda, for the purpose of checking the measures related to data breaches and for informing Users, maintains records which contain the scope of personal data of the Users, the scope and number of those affected by the data breach, the time, circumstances, effects of the data breach as well as the measures taken to avert such breaches, and also any other data required by legislation stipulating data processing.

VIII.3. Users may exercise their rights through the following contact details:

Mailing address: Fishinda Kft., Magyarország, H-8096 Sukoró, Páfrány köz 11.

Customer service: info@fishinda.com

VIII.4. Users may at any time request to obtain the rectification or erasure of their data that were recorded inaccurately. Users may correct certain data themselves on the Website or in the Application; in other cases Fishinda shall rectify or erase the data within 3 days from the receipt of such request. In this latter case the data will not be recoverable. Erasure shall not be applicable to cases where processing is required by legislation (e.g. accounting laws), these will be preserved by Fishinda for the term necessary.

The Users and any party to whom the data was transmitted for processing shall be notified of the rectification or the erasure. Notification is not necessary if, with regard to the purpose of the processing, it does not harm the legitimate interests of the Users.

If Fishinda rejects the request of the User for the rectification, restriction or erasure, it shall notify him or her about the factual and legal reasons for rejecting the request for the rectification, restriction or erasure within 30 days of receiving such a request in writing.

VIII.5. Users may at any time object to the processing of their personal data without a need for cause. Fishinda shall review the objection within the shortest possible time after the request has been submitted, but not later than within 15 days, and shall decide on the merits of the case and shall inform the requestor of its decision in writing.

VIII.6. Users have the right to request to obtain from Fishinda the personal data concerning them in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and, in addition, have the right to transmit those data to another controller if:

- the processing is carried out solely on the basis of your consent and is based on a contractual authorization determined in the agreement concluded by you; and
- the processing is carried out by automated means.

VIII.7. Users may lodge their complaint under the Information Act and the Civil Code (Act V of 2013) with National Authority for Data Security and Freedom of Information (NAIH, H-1125 Budapest, Szilágyi Erzsébet fasor 22/c.; www.naih.hu) or exercise their rights before the Court.

VIII.8. If the User provided the data of a third party when registering to use the services or caused damage while using the Application and the Website, Fishinda shall be entitled to claim compensation for damages against the User. In such cases, Fishinda shall assist the authorities acting in the case with any means available to it in order to determine the identity of the infringing person.

VII. Data security

Taking into account the state of the art, the costs of implementation and the data security risks, Fishinda and its processors shall implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk.

Fishinda shall protect the processed data with measures proportionate to the risks, particularly against unlawful access, alteration, transmission, disclosure, erasure or destruction, and accidental destruction and damage, and against it becoming inaccessible due to the alteration of the technology applied. As part of this, Fishinda and its processors shall store the data password protected and/or in encrypted databases. Fishinda and its processors shall protect the data with means proportionate to the risks, in particular with firewalls, antivirus programs, encryption mechanisms, content filtering and other technical and process solutions, and shall constantly monitor data breaches.

In payment support services used for payments, every information related to payments will be protected with SSL encryption.

VIII. Miscellaneous provisions

Fishinda shall not check the personal data provided to it. Only the person providing the personal data shall be liable for the adequacy thereof. By providing his or her email address during the registration, User accepts the liability for the email address to be used for services only by him or her. Having regard to this liability, any and all responsibility related to the logins via a particular e-mail address shall be borne exclusively by the User who registered that particular e-mail address.

The provisions of this Notice were prepared with particular attention to the provisions of Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council (GDPR).

Fishinda maintains the rights to unilaterally amend this Data Processing Notice at any time with prior notice provided to the User in the Application and on the www.fishinda.com webpage. By using the Application and the www.fishinda.com webpage, Users accept the amended terms.
